

PAUL VASTERLING, Artistic Director

Our Mission: We create, perform, teach and promote dance as an essential and inspiring element of our community.

Planned Giving

Through planned giving you can be a part of Nashville Ballet's mission for decades to come. Legacy gifts are an investment in ballet, music, and dance for the next generation.

Leaving a legacy gift to Nashville Ballet is quick and easy.

What is your first step?

Often, it's a phone call.

- ❖ Designate Nashville Ballet as a Beneficiary to receive a gift through IRAs, annuities, life insurance policies
 - HOW: Call your financial advisor/ benefits department and ask for a change of beneficiary form.

- ❖ Name Nashville Ballet in your will as the recipient of a percentage or fixed dollar amount of your estate or appreciated stock
 - HOW: Call your attorney and arrange for a new will or codicil to an existing will that specifies the bequest.

If you are considering a planned gift to Nashville Ballet and would like to learn more, please call Joel Abramson (x805) at (615) 297-2966.